"BILL" CLARKE WITHDRAWS

Discouraged, He Gives Way to Drill-Statesmen Spend an Evening at a Canadian Resort, the Guests of President Fred Postal, of the Club.

(Special to The Washington Times.) DETROIT, Aug. 2 .- One run in three games is the magnificent total acquired three games with Detroit, and that run an accident.

Today's contest was even more discouraging than the preceding two, as Winnie Mercer allowed the Senators but one hit, Ryan getting that in the two winning runs, but one hit, Ryan getting that in the two winning runs, but one hit, Ryan getting that in the two winning runs, but one hit, Ryan getting that in the caselint, with honors even.

A remarkable feature of the game was the two runs by Philadelphia, with home run drives by Seyboid and Davis home run drives by Seyboid and Davis home run drives by Seyboid and Davis home.

Patten was on the slab for Washington and he pitched a game that would ordinarily have won, nolding the Detroits down to seven hits. Two of them were home runs, however, Beck's being a drive to the clubhouse, and Barrett's going to the opposite corner. It was slowly returned by Orth, or it would have only been a three-bagger. Both runners succeeded in eluding Clarke at the plate by narrow margins, and the latter became discouraged, giving way

The last two times up Delchanty tried to funt, his efforts exciting the risibilities of the crowd, which was a big one. Keister strained a tendon and gave place during the latter part of the game to Orth. His injury is not serious,
